

Come The Night

The Dangerous Delameres Book One

Deadly secrets unfold on the lonely English heath where a highwayman pursues his dangerous vow of revenge.

Silver St. Clair has vowed to reclaim her family birthright at any cost, but the precious lavender formula coveted by all of fashionable London is lost, hidden in the misty lavender fields of her Norfolk estate. Now Silver must risk her reputation and her life, striking a wanton bargain with England's most notorious highwayman, whose price will be her unconditional surrender, her unbridled passion -- and her innocent heart.

A RECIPE FROM THE KITCHEN OF:

CHRISTINA SKYE

Lavender Perfume

INGREDIENTS:

6 drops rose oil

5 drops cassis oil

1/4 pint of unscented alcohol or vodka (optional)

6 drops lavender oil

2 drops eucalyptus oil

DIRECTIONS:

Add oils in glass bottle and shake well. Close and allow to mature for a week. (Preferably while you reread COME THE NIGHT). For a lighter fragrance, add the alcohol to the oils. Wear Millefleur and be dangerous. Maybe a dashing highwayman will make you his own special project. Enjoy!
